
Merchandising for museums

Among the various instruments of implementation and promotion, merchandising museum is one of the levers of marketing that goes appropriately designed and developed as part of heritage

Alliance Culturelle complements a purely conservative and cultural tutelativa good, a new dimension given to the enhancement, promotion and enjoyment, aimed at involving layers of increasingly diverse and heterogeneous

For more information about our products, not hesitate to contact us