
Multimedia systems for Cultural Heritage

The growing demand for cultural tourism on the one hand and use the other new technologies are revolutionizing the face of cultural communication. The general public is increasingly interested in the Cultural Heritage and do it using new channels of information and communication.

Alliance Culturelle is a company that has always looked to the future and already the early 90s is to report its presence on the web.

Creation of an Internet site to promote
Promotional Writing for the Internet
Promoting a website (Search engine marketing and optimisation)
Graphic design
Multimedia for Cultural Heritage
Accomplishing a multimedia interactive
Screenplay and film recovery
Construction of movies and documentaries with digital technologies